Dear Doctor Tewfik:

We have read your manuscript on Oriental Mysticism with the greatest interest. You have direct knowledge of subjects which should be better known to people in Europe and America. However, World Unity Magazine is endeavoring to fill such a special field that we have come to the conclusion that this treatment is not exactly adapted to our plans.

I was very glad to learn this morning from Dr. Guthrie, of St. Mark's Church that he has arranged with you to have you represent Sufiism in one of his afternoon services.

Dear Doctor Tewfik:

I am quite willing to tell you just why we felt your article could not be used. Although you have a very good command of English the manuscript would have to be very carefully rewritten to remove the foreign phrases and idioms. Then too, the point of view throughout was that of general culture and we felt that the material, while very valuable in itself, did not sufficiently focus upon the world unity idea as we want the Magazine to express it.

In other words, the article was quite oriental in character and not adapted to western views and needs as we conceive them to be.

Yours sincerely,

Horace Holley
Managing Editor.
