ARNAOUTKEUY-CONSTANTINOPLE, Turkey
PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT

MARY MILLS PATRICK, PH. D.,
PRESIDENT OF THE FACULTY.
WILLIAM SMITH MURRAY, PH. D.,
DIRECTOR PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT.

B. 39 Salata June 11 1924.

My dear Dr. Rıza Demfrik
It was a very special pleasure for Mrs. Murray to receive your letter written Nov. 28th. It seems incredible that I should have waited so long in responding.

We fully appreciate all your good words and I would wish to assure you and your wife that we think of you often with deep interest in your welfare and with kindest memories. Should we be so fortunate as to go sometime near your country we most certainly shall hope to find you and to have an old-time visit with you and your family.

We are going on here much as usual, with many perplexing problems coming up almost constantly. Thus far, however, we may be said to have kept our heads above water.

You will hear, no doubt, of the resignation of Dr. Patrick. It is something of a blow to us all but we have full confidence in his successor, Miss Adams. Our number of students has fallen off somewhat, but we look for a larger registration for next year.

We hope that Miss Selma may spend some happy weeks with you. Will you please write us again depending on me to respond with much more promptness than on the occasion.

Our best wishes and kindest regards to you and yours.
As ever yours faithfully,
W.S. Murray

Dear Riza Tervik:

The inclosed four photos are all I find at present that would seem to be of interest. I am pleased to let you have these photos and I hope that they may be of service.

We all wish you and Seid a pleasant trip. Kindly remember Mrs. Murray and myself to such of our acquaintances as may inquire about us, and especially to Mr. Plimpton.

Yours faithfully

W. S. Murray.
