My dear Friend
I was glad to see in the newspapers that you had been to have a long interview at Salonica with Adil Bey & the executive of the Committee. This is an excellent beginning for reconciliation, and cooperation of all true patriots who wish to save Turkey from wolves and sharks. Please write and tell me how matters are going on and why Talaat Bey retired. You know that all your words and letters remain confidential and I sincerely wish success to all your courageous efforts. Please give me very best wishes to Talaat & beg him not to be disheartened, but to continue his reform efforts.

Believe me to be
Most truly yours

Edward Atkin
