Dear Liyad,

Thank you so much for your letter. I am very glad to hear that you have moved to the new appartement and now you haven't any troubles with the "inundations". But the most important are the terraces and the beautiful view, I think.

And what about your cats? How did they put ~~ea~~ change up? You haven't given me your new address. I only know that it is not far from your old one. Could you let me know as soon as possible where you are living. I ask you for your new address because a friend of my husband, Mr. Bronisław Augustyniak, who is a chairman of lawyers' council in Gdansk, will be with his wife in Turkey this summer. They will be in Istanbul approximately on 20th June and I want them to pay you a short visit. They will travel with a tent and stay at campings. I would be very grateful to you if you could to give them a hand and have them under your care.

Mr. Augustyniak speaks German and has a car so I think that it won't be a great trouble to you if you only have enough time. May be you won't be so occupied this June.

Now something about us. We are going to move at the beginning of the next year since I shall get our own appartement. Then we shall be able to reserve one room for you. Already now we invite you to us very heartily. We shall write to you as soon as we have the key, to our flat, and we shall be very pleased to receive you in any time you will want to come.

Thank you very much for so kind permanent invitation to Turkey.
This year I cannot to go anywhere because I'm going to have a baby in August.

Please give my best greetings to Beyhan. Love to you from me and my husband.

Eva

P.S. I have sent you an illustrated book separately.
