My dear Dr. Rıza

It was very good of you to remember me & agree to come over on Monday the 15th. We have made therefore, arrangements to combine my morning classes into one class which will meet at 9.50 Am.

I hope you will come at the said time so that a large majority of our Philosophy Students may hear you.

I expect you to lunch with us at 12 o'clock and then if you had time you could stay with me through the afternoon or return to New York as you feel.

Since the definite arrangements as stated have been made I hope you will come. You are to get off at Park Place & take a taxi to our institution.

most sincerely yours

W. S. Progate

Dear Sir

Unfortunately I can not hold out the prospect of a position here. Our arrangements for next year are now made and I know of no opening likely to occur.

Very truly yours
