I wish to thank you most
warmly for your kind
telegram of good
wishes for the crew
year. I am so sorry to hear of Said's illness, of which I only heard last week; but I have been unable to see him, as though I have visited 2 or 3

hospitals in the hopes of finding him. I have been quite unsuccessful. Now I am
laid up with a heavy
cold, & am confined to the house. I do hope that by now said
is very much better, & that you are in good health.

Believe me,

Ydcar Pasha.

Dear Dr. Tewfik:

Sorry that this letter has been so long delayed and that I am unable to deliver it in person. I have just arrived in Beirut and must hurry on to Istanbul, where I shall be at the American Embassy for a long time. I am very glad, however, to be able to send you this news from your son, who is doing very well and is in excellent health.

Very best wishes,

Harold A. Lehrman
