SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

From Queen Ann Hill is this beautiful view of metropolitan Seattle. The new Washington Plaza (circular building), 50-story Seattle-First Bank, world famous Space Needle, Science Center and Elliott Bay are a few of the highlights of this evening photo.

My very good friend Ziyad bey, ad Dilhan,
I deeply regret that due to my sudden departure I could not come to see you and say farewell to you. I did not even had time to cook that gulash for you. But I assure you that you are the one and only about whom I am thinking frequently fondly and most affectionately.

This is a beautiful country on the Pacific coast, but I come through also beautiful Istanbul Rd of this post. See you here color by Kyle Smith
