Before the war, myself & the late Sir Edward Peers, were engaged, as you know, in founding this International Daily. But the whole project was held up by the conflict. It is now being taken up again & at the present moment I am busy here in Prague organizing Temporary Offices.

I enclose herewith the new & revised list of our Committee of Initiative & I write to ask if we may still have the pleasure & honor of having you with us. I hope so.

I suppose you remember the character of the proposed Daily — an objective paper concerned only with international affairs & looking at questions purely from a point of view which disregards country, party & race — and so I do not go into the subject more fully. But if you want further explanations, I would be happy to give them to you. Of course we do not ask of you any material aid of any kind, — only your moral support.

Very truly yours, time soon. It will be a true pleasure to do anything for you in the Library.

I suppose you have heard that Prof Browne has another little son & all is going on well. He is very busy as you can well suppose.

You have doubtless read all our Election intelligence. It is a most extraordinary thing that the Elections are nearly all over & the Government majority is exactly the same as ~~it~~ it was when the Parliament was dissolved.

I wonder if you would add to your kindness by sending me any Turkish or other Oriental used Postage Stamps you may have and don't want yourself, so many people are glad to have them.

With kindest regards,

Dear Swant.

I was so pleased to receive your Christmas card with its brief token of remembrance. It gave me very great pleasure to know I was not forgotten. I am so terribly sorry to have missed meeting Madame and not to have seen you any more before you left. I do hope that in the near future you will pay another visit to Cyprus. Love dear, friend Dr. Unwin has received the Order of the British Empire from the King is taken of gratitude for his long service. We are so pleased at the honour. I do hope the New Year will be a very happy and tranquil one for you and Madame. My husband joins me in sending the kindest greetings.

Yours sincerely
Mary Bevan.
